Journal History

Created in 1980 by Professor Ioan Hârjoabă, the journal continues the initiative of the interwar publication "Lucrările Societății Geografice Dimitrie Cantemir" (a total of 4 issues in 1937, 1939, 1941, 1943), also significantly influenced by professors Mihai David, Victor Tufescu, Nicolae Lupu.

Editorial Policy

The aim of « Lucrările Seminarului Geografic Dimitrie Cantemir » Journal is to stimulate the production of scientific papers in the fields of Geography, Territorial Planning and Regional Development. Case studies, as well as methodological and theoretical contributions in these fields are privileged. The journal publishes papers both in English and French, being this way open towards renowned experts belonging to these two scientific environments and encouraging as well multidisciplinary analyses.
